

A N A C T

For continuing the
Priviledges and Jurisdctions
Of the COUNTY of LANCASTER.

BE it Enacted by this present Parliament, and the Authority thereof, That all Priviledges and Jurisdctions belonging to the said County of LANCASTER, and the Inhabitants thereof, be continued till the First of January, One thousand six hundred fifty three, and no longer: And that John Bradshaw Serjeant at Law, and Thomas Fell Esq; be, and are hereby made and appointed Commissioners for keeping the Seal of the said County; and that they and either of them have all such Powers, as any Chancelloz of the said County formerly hath lawfully used or exercised concerning the same, till the First of January aforesaid, and no longer.

Saturday the Seventeenth of September, 1653.

ORdered by the Parliament, That this Act be forthwith Printed and Published.

Hen: Scobell, Clerk of the Parliament.

London, Printed by John Field, Printer to the Parliament of England. 1653.

1194

Privileges and Juridictions

Of the COUNTY of LONDON

It is granted by the King's Letters, that the Juridictions and Privileges of the County of London, should be preserved, and that the same should be enjoyed by the Citizens and Burgesses of the said County, as they have enjoyed the same in times past. And it is further granted, that the Citizens and Burgesses of the said County, should be allowed to elect and return Members to serve in the House of Commons, and that the same Members should be qualified to serve in the said House, as they have been accustomed to do in times past.

Printed by the Stationer, at the Sign of the Star, in St. Dunstons Church-yard, London. 1687.

Printed by John Sturges, at the Sign of the Star, in St. Dunstons Church-yard, London. 1687.